The Castle Inn EST. 1620

*The Castle Inn dates back to 1620 built as a wooden structure.
It once was a traditional inn where people could rent rooms for the night, it has long been told that a few famous & nortorious people have rested their heads here.
Tunnels were made to smuggle brandy, tea & silk to the church & creek.
Throughout its history & today The Castle Inn continues to be a place where family & friends meet to enjoy the drinks, food & atmosphere.*
